Non-Biking family members?

Come along and take advantage of the network of trails within Little Buffalo State Park. There are many good opportunities for seeing wildlife along Little Buffalo Creek and Holman Lake. Highlights include a covered bridge, Shoaff's Grist Mill with a working water wheel, and an original rail car. Just check the Hiker option on the registration form. Your registration includes a BIKE4BOOKS T-Shirt and lunch.

I attest that I am at least 18 years of age and am medically able and properly trained to participate in this event. I understand and agree that the riding of a bicycle or otherwise participating in a bike ride event contains inherent and other risks that could lead to serious injury or death, especially when riding or standing on or adjacent to public roadways traveled by motor vehicles.

I understand that Newport Public Library (NPL), as sponsor of this event, is not accepting any responsibility for protecting any rider or other participant from any of the risks associated with this event and that I am solely responsible for my own safety and the safety of my children participating in the event, and for following all rules of the road and traffic laws. In addition, I agree to wear a helmet.

Intending to be legally bound, I, for myself, my heirs, executors, administrators, and anyone else who can claim on my behalf or with respect to any injury of me or my children who are participating, hereby agree not to sue and do release NPL, its directors, officers, employees and/or volunteers, and all boroughs and townships from any and all liability related to injury, property loss or otherwise related to my or any of my children's participation in this event, regardless of any negligence on the part of any of them, and whether such claims are now known or unknown, anticipated or unanticipated.

I further grant full permission to NPL to use any photographs or any other record of this event, and information about my participation or that of my children, therein for any purpose.
